TWO ARE DEAD;
WOMAN IS HURT
IN GUN BATTLE

MEN KILL EACH OTHER IN DUEL
—MOTHER OF ONE IS INJURED AS SHE ATTEMPTS TO HALT FIGHT AT VERSAILLES

VERSAILLES, Ind., April 18.— Arthur Chamberlain, 35 years old, and Jess Rodgers, 65, shot each other to death in a gun duel Friday afternoon near Rodgers' home eight millions of here.

Chamberlain's mother, Mrs. Mary Lamberkin, was wounded when she attempted to stop the shooting by stepping between the two men. The duel is said to have been the result of a long feud between Mrs. Lamber-kin and Rodgers, climaxed when Rodgers allegedly threw tin cans into Mrs. Lamberkin's yard.
Mrs. Lamberkin wrote her son Chamberlain, who has been living in Ohio, telling of the dispute with her neighbor and he came home accompanied by a friend. He and the friend were drinking before the shooting took place it was reported.

Setting out to hunt Rodgers, Chamberlain armed himself with a .38 calibre revolver. He and Rodgers met on the highway and each fired five shots. Rodgers being armed with the same type weapon. Rodgers was struck three times, one bullet going through his heart and he dropped dead. Chamberlain was wounded once. Seeing his opponent fall, he started to walk away, but took only a few steps when he fell dead also.

Mrs. Lamberkin was wounded in the chest when she stepped between the two men.

NEW MARKET STATE BANK
HELD UP; $125 TAKEN

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 18.—The New Market State bank at New Market, eight miles south of here, was held up late this afternoon by a young bandit, who escaped with $125.50.

The bandit, who entered the bank at 3:20 o'clock, ordered E. W. Yount, cashier, to "Stick 'em up." After grabbing cash lying on the bank counter, the bandit ordered Yount, who was alone, to go to the rear of the room and sit down. He then informed the cashier that he intended to board a Pennsylvania train, which was at the station in New Market at that time. The bandit told the cashier to remain in the chair until he heard the train leave.

Yount sounded an alarm immediately after the bandit left the bank. It was found that he did not board the train. He was thought to be operating alone, as no strange automobiles were seen in the vicinity of the banking house.

Montgomery county authorities early tonight were searching along roads in the southern part of the county, but no trace of the young bandit, who resembled a farm hand, had been found.

DEPAUW STAFF
IN RESOLUTION
BACKING OXNAM

STATEMENT IS PREPARED BY COMMITTEE COMPOSED OF
DR. W. W. CARSON, DR.
WALTER E. BUNDY
AND PROFESSOR
R. W. PENCE

CALLS EVAN'S SPEECH UNJUST Says Indianapolis Attorney Refuses To Give Text of Address To DePauw Head—Teaching Staff Meeting
This Morning

The DePauw university faculty met this morning to adopt some means of showing their firm stand behind President G. Bromley Oxnam and his administration which was attacked by Will P. Evans, Indianapolis attorney. Following an indignant meeting Friday evening, a committee was appointed of Dr. W. W.
Carson, Dr. Walter Bundy and Prof.
R. W. Pence, to draw up a statement expressing the attitude of the faculty. This resolution was adopted as follows:

"The report in the press of Mr. W.
P. Evans' address before the Indianapolis association of DePauw alumni leaves with the reader an impression that is so misleading, so much at variance with the facts, and so unjust to President G. Bromley Oxnam, that the faculty is moved to express its surprise, indignation, and regret at his remarks. The kindest interpretation that we can place on Mr.
Evans' address is that he is misinformed; the worst that he has made a deliberately malicious attack on President Oxnam.

"These charges by Mr. Evans are simply the climax of a persistent persecution of President Oxnam by a very small group. This opposition began with his election as president of DePauw University and became active within a month after his arrival on the campus. President Oxnam has made every effort to come to a friendly understanding with this group, but in each instance he has met with uncompromising prejudice.
"The charges of perilsous teachings with regard to 'sex, socialism and communism' are absolutely without foundation in fact; and had an honest attempt been made to ascertain the truth, such a gross misrepresentation of the situation on the campus would not have been possible.

"As members of the teaching staff of DePauw it is our ambition for the student to have access to a body of subject matter that is constructive and stimulating in all fields of human interest. And we are firmly convinced that our lectureships have contributed substantially to this end. The roster of guest speakers has included a number of persons of national and international reputation whose views are matters of general public knowledge and whose work is commonly known as unassociated with any partisan propaganda.

"The faculty wish to take this occasion to affirm their confidence in the administration of DePauw under President Oxnam's direction. We believe that his administration has been intelligent, wise, progressive and successful. We believe that President Oxnam has sought to conserve and promote all that is good and worthy in the DePauw traditions. In his chapel talks, sermons and lectures he has stood before us as a champion of human rights and justice in the same Christian spirit that inspired our best American ideals, principles and institutions. In all that he has said and done, he has been actuated by an earnest and consuming patriotism.

"We wish to assure all alumni and friends of DePauw of our enthusiastic support of President Oxnam, who, in our judgement, is an inspiring and trustworthy leader of youth."

Two attempts were made by the university to secure a copy of Mr.

THE HERALD 20 Years Ago To-day

Wednesday, April 19, 1911.

A discussion regarding the hauling of children to and out of township schools by order of the township trustee resulted in trouble between Fred Todd, trustee of Floyd township and J. W. Riggles, Monday afternoon, in which Todd was struck on the head with a stone, which was thrown by Riggles, and badly injured.

Kenneth Coffman, five-year-old son dale narrowly escaped drowning in a cistern Monday afternoon. The lad wandered into the yard of his grandmother and lifted a plank of the cov-

ARENA, Wis., April 13.—Robbers blew up part of the Arena State Bank building today, stole between $1,000 and $2,000 and escaped after fighting out Walter Hankerson, fire chief and his son Theodore with pistols.

The explosion demolished the rear of the bank building arousing much of the town and bringing Hankerson and his son to the scene. They opened fire when they saw three men emerge from the smoke of the blast.

The bandits returned the fire, driving Hankerson and his son behind a woodpile where they continued firing as the robbers fled. Neither of the Hankersons was wounded. Apparently the bandits escaped unscathed.

The bandits did a thorough job.
Before they set off the explosives, they cut all alarm wires that guard ed the vault and snipped telephone wires leading out of town. The rear part of the bank was demolished at an estimated loss of $2,500.

It was an hour before communication was established with Mazomanie hunt for the robbers. They fled toward Madison and the trail was lost.

fosters depression," charged Prof. F.

Business and industry administrate their great profits to expand producconsumer-buyer mass the buying power necessary to dispose of this increased production. A second factor," stated Prof. Ormes in discussing the causes of the 1930 depression, "is that people in the United States are living too far below their incomes and are saving too much because of the faulty distribution of purchasing power."

GIGANTIC STONE TAPESTRY

opening May 1. This vast work, covering the walls of the great museum to a height of 42 feet and a length of 325 feet, has occupied the time of twenty artists under A. Janniot, noted French sculptor, for the past two years. Its theme is the "running story" of France's growth as a great empire. In technical conception the work closely parallels the authentic Flemish and cloth of the 14th and 15th centuries.

PLAY PRESENTED BY CHURCH SCHOOL PUPILS FRIDAY

The Junior Marionettes of the Methodist church school, Friday afternoon, at the church, presented a 3 act play, "The Man Who Opened Eyes" by Florence Morse Kingsley. The play was dramatized and coached by William L. Kautz, a major in the department of religious education in the university. The children of the department shared in the project by constructing the Marionettes and scenery.

The play concerned itself with two small boys, Zack and Tor who lived in Jerusalem. They were very poor and in order to get money they chased the chariots. While engaged in this act Tor was struck across the face with a whip by the charioteer. The whip wounded his eyes making him blind.

One day the two boys heard of a man, Jesus, who was healing people. They searched until they found Him. He made Tor's blind eyes to see. The boys were so excited that they forgot to thank Him at the time of the healing for his kindness to Tor. And then came another search to find the man. Finally they are told that He is dead. However, Tor went to the tomb only to find the man who opens eyes a living personage in his loving followers.

Lafayette Porter took the role of Tor, the blind boy. The part of Zack, his comrade was played by Charles Jones. Others in the cast were Betty and Barbara Yunker and Betty Greenleaf.

Music was furnished by Gordon and Allan Otis, Betty Greenleaf, and Janet McMahon.

The work in Marionettes in the past year has been under the supervision of Mrs. Grafton Longden, Superintendent of the Department of Mrs. Kautz, Director. They have been assisted by the teachers of the Junior Department.

LEADING SPEED MERCHANTS TO DRIVE IN AUTOMOBILE RACE ON DIRT TRACK SUNDAY AFTER NOON—IRA HALL, FAVORITE

BRAZIL, Ind., April 18.—The second Indiana dirt track will blow off the lid for the 1931 automobile racing season Sunday when all the leading speed merchants of the central states will assemble at Jungle park, 30 miles north of Terre Haute on U. S. road 41 for a racing program under the auspices of the Buckeye Racing Association.

Don Zeiter, manager of the Buckeye Racing Association opened his Indiana season of dirt track auto racing last Sunday with a successful meeting at the Sunflower park, five miles west of Brazil, Jungle park is now being put in readiness for the next program on Sunday, April 19, and this will be followed by a race meet to open the season at the Brazil Speedway, two miles east of Brazil on Sunday, April 26.

More than 5,000 race fans assembled at Sunflower park last Sunday and enjoyed a series of thrilling contests between some of the best dirt track drivers in the central west. Jungle park has been put in first class condition for Sunday's program of exciting sport. There will be the usual program of four contests, three five mile events and a 15-mile feature race.

A field of at least 30 drivers is expected to take part in the elimination trials and in the bunch will be all of the favorite drivers including Ira Hall, Terre Haute ace, who captured two of last Sunday's races, Maurice Rose, of Dayton, Ohio; Red Campbell, of St. Louis; Leslie Ford, of Chicago; Dick Frost, of Terre Haute; John Sawyer, Milwaukee; Dick Kroger, Ray Myers, Howard King and Howdy Wilcox, of Indianapolis; Bert Schlosser, of Milwaukee and many others. There will be a number of old favorites at Jungle park who were not entered in the Sunflower park last Sunday.

The Jungle park track has just been oiled and it is very likely that a new track record will be set with so many of the best speed merchants in the running.

Select Your Milk By Its Sweet Taste of Safety

THERE is a sweet taste of safety that comes from the heating of milk, according to Professor R. M. Washburn, a specialist in dairying. Professor Washburn has served on the faculties of the state universities of Vermont and Minnesota and was at one time state dairy and food commissioner of Minnesota.

"Speaking agriculturally," says Professor Washburn, "the annual half crop of America is nearly two and one-fourth per cent of the total population, thus giving us about 2,225,000 infants to be fed for strength or for weakness each year. Statistics further show that more than 90 per cent of these are required to consume food other than their mothers' milk before they are old enough to take ordinary solid food. We learn further that the death rate on the bottle-fed infant in the United States is nearly six times as great in proportion to the number so fed as those that are breast-fed."

He has made a study of infant feeding in many European countries and in the Orient.

Prefacing his story of how mothers in foreign countries boiled their milk before giving it to the infant, Professor Washburn quotes the late Dr. L. Emmett Holt: "The advantages of sterilizing milk are obvious. It is not strange that after its introduction by Soxhlet in 1885 the practice of heating milk used for infant feeding rapidly extended over the world. Among the poor of our large cities, in summer, boiling is to be advised as the most satisfactory, and in fact, the only efficient method of sterilization."

But Professor Washburn claims that the practice of boiling milk or scalding it for babies has been carried on by mothers everywhere since time immemorial.

In part he says: "The Swiss mothers boil the milk up strong so it foams up in the dish. This is heating to about 212 degrees. The Italian mothers usually scald the milk just so the skin comes to the top. This is heating to about 235 degrees. Jewish mothers of Russia and Roumania regularly boil the milk for their children, and, like the Italians, Swiss and others, they continue the process after coming to America, even though the milk delivered to them has once been pasteurized."

Here Professor Washburn found

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

NOVELTY wears in rayon are proving popular and most of them have a real charm of their own as shown by this illustration of a spectator sports suit of combined rayon and spun rayon tulle combined in a basket weave with open check design. This fabric is soft and dull in luster and does not wrinkle or crease.

The suit shown is styled for late spring and summer having a pointed double breasted effect with deep collar opening showing the white waist beneath with the large pearl buttons in a way to create a pleasing contrast. Belt and buckle of self material hold the gown snugly at the waistline and the stitched patch pockets furnish a break in the severity of the design at the hips. A touch of lace in the cloche matches the stockings and rounds out the ensemble.

When the cave man wanted help or a wife he strode forth, tapped one on the head, and dragged he or she to the tribal habitat.

Making up a shopping list

The hall needs a new rug. More towels are needed for the bathroom, and the kitchen floor could certainly stand a coat of paint. The children need shoes. The car will soon need tires. Well, we buy a hundred new things every year.

Scattered throughout the United States are manufacturers who make the very things we need. Their products are on sale in certain stores within easy reach. Certain of these products, and certain of these stores, are especially fitted to take care of our special need. But which products and which stores? Which can we afford, and which do we think is best? We must look to advertising for advice.

Advertising is the straight line between supply and demand. It saves time spent in haphazard shopping. It leads you directly to your goal. By reading the advertisements, we can determine in advance where the best values are to be found. With the aid of advertising, shopping becomes a simple and pleasant business, and budget figures bring more smiles than frowns.

From the pages of this paper you can make up a shopping list that will save you money.
